VOL. CVXIIII.—100. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, TUESDAY, ARRIL 29, 1913. PRICE. 2 CENTS

FOR IMPROVEMENT OF THE POTOMAC

To Make River Navigable From Washington to Cumberland.

MEETING TO BE HELD.

Alexandrians Invited to Attend Conference in Washington on May 10th to Discuss Plans.

More than a year ago, Congressman Charles C. Carlin secured an appropriation from Congress for the purpose of having surveys made of the Potomac in order to ascertain the cost and feasibility of making the river navigable from Washington to Cumberland at the time the Gazette published an exhaustive article showing the great benefits to be derived by Alexandria from the carrying out of such a plan. It would make it possible to bring coal and other raw materials here at a much less expense than at present and would open up a new territory to the markets of the Alexandria manufacturers and the Virginia farmers.

Since the appropriation was made officials of the War Department have been at work on the surveys and considerable progress has been made. The work has now reached such a stage that Col. W. C. Langfitt, the engineer officer in charge of the Washington district, has arranged a number of meetings of citizens who are interested in the project. One of the most important of these meetings will be held in Washington on May 10th, and Alexandrians have been invited to be present and express their views upon the proposed plan. It is expected that representatives of the various trade organizations will be present.

The surveys made by Col. Langfitt's office recently, while incomplete, suggest that President George Washington's idea of building a canal around the Great Falls was feasible. Certainly General Washington thought so, for he organized a company which started work and the remains of the canal are still to be found.

It is stated that it is easily possible to use the Chesapeake and Ohio canal around the Little and Great Falls, the portion of the river impassable for vessels, and that water several feet deep will be found in the rest of the river in isolated spots. The cost of the proposed undertaking has not been figured on by the engineers.

SANITARY CUPS ON SOUTHERN.

Collapsible Paper Drinking Vessels for Patrons of Road.

Arrangemtnts have been made by the Southern Railway to furnish sanitary individual drinking cups to passengers on all trains, an da large supply of cups of the colllapsible paper type has been ordered. As soon as the cups have been received each conductor will be furnished with a supply, and any passenger desiring a cup will receive one free of charge on application to the conductor. Notices to this effect will be posted in each coach.

Furnishing drinking cups to passengers on the large number of trains operated by the Southern Railway will involve a substantial expenditure which is being undertaken to provide for the convenience of patrons of the railway. All common drinking cups have been removed from trains in compliance with United States Government regulations and the staututes and ordinances of many states and municipalities.

Hereafter passengers on Southern Railway trains will be put to no inconvenience or expense in regard to drinking water, and at the same time will not be subject to any possible infection through the use of the common drinking cup.

DELEGATES RETURN.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, one of the delegates to the Southern Sociological Conference which was held in Atlanta returned home last night. Miss Rose McDonald will return Wednesday morning.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The government of Gustemala, through a special representative, yesterday made an appeal to the United States for protection against British reprisals for nonpayment of debts. This appeal puts squarely before President Wilson the necessity of deciding whether he will stand between the debtor Central American republics and their foreign creditor., or whether he will turn them over to Europeans to do with as they please.

In Thomas Ellison, better known as "Uncle Tom," who resides in Newton county, Ark., it is believed the real champion of the pro-generation principles of Theodore Roosevelt has been found. "Uncle Tom" is 93 years old. The birth Sunday of a son to one of his granddaughters caused a recasting of Ellison's record. Here it is: Married three times. Father of 50 children. Grandfather of 125 children. Great-great-grandfather of 27 children Great-gerat-granfather of 27 children. His youngest child is 11 years old, the oldest 65. Ellison was born in Clinton county, Ohio.

The Japanese Diet yesterday voted to send Ehara Soroku, a member of the House of Lords, to Sacramento, Cal., with a view to establishing a better mutual understanding between the California and Japanese governments, according to a Tokyo cablegram. The foreign office was instructed to communicate with the United States government and also the state government of California to ascertain what attitude will be taken in the United States on Mr. Soroku's proposed visit. If the United States does not object the envoy will sail May 10.

The crevasse near St. John, Miss., has spread to 2,000 feet, and seven parishes are being flooded. A wall of water twenty-five feet high is rising inland, inundating the towns of Waterproof, Clayton and Ferriday. Forty thousand persons are homeless. The levee at Ramey, which 6,000 men have been working on to prevent the flooding of the richest parishes in the state, is again sloughing and may go out before morning. All the women prisoners on the state convict farm were rushed from Angolora, La., to a place of safety yesterday afternoon. The levee is expected to break at any moment.

Mrs. Nellie Paugh, 36 years old, late yesterday threw her two sons, Daniel, 12, and Delbert, 6, from a bridge into Deer creek at Logansport, Ind., and jumped into the stream. The mother and the younger boy were drowned, but Donald swam ashore. Before throwing the boys off the bridge the mother told them she did so because she loved them.

The cruetly alleged to be practiced upon private soldiers of the Germany army was brought to mind again last week by the ordering of a court martial inquiry into the death of a member of the imperial body guard. The case brought the following private letter from Private Bussian, serving in the crack Potsdam Lancers, to his mother. "I am thrashed by everybody with whips. I am going mad. Let me see you once more before I die." The mother hurried to Potsdam to complain, but the son urged her to keep silence, saying: "If you report the case nobody will believe you and I will be tormented worse." A year later Bussian was found dead. The court martial revealed that Bussian had been treated with indescribable brutality by third-year men. The sergeant refused to forward his complaints, and at the trial declared that he had noticed nothing, although Bussian's face was often black and blue.

Battered and churned about in a small space by the great paddle wheel of the Mahawk, an excursion steamboat, as she was in the Morse dry dock, Brooklyn, yesterday, Arthur N. Brown, a machinist, was killed and his companion, Albert Ludgate, narrowly escaped a similar fate. The two were working on the wheel, when Frank O. Davis, the engine tender of the craft, which is being repaired, turned on the steam. The wheel began to revolve. Ludgate grasped the inside edge of a paddle as he stood on the steel shaft, and when he struck the water he dived to safety. Brown, instead of diving, held on, and was whirled about again and again in the wheelbox. Soon his hold was loosened and then he was battered by paddles until he received a blow that sent him to the bottom of the dry dock.

CALIFORNIA IS FIRM AS EVER

President Wilson Asks Advice of International Law Expert.

NO CHANGE IN SIGHT.

Secretary Bryan Fails to Produce Veering From Stand Taken by Legislators in Sacramento.

Washington, April 29.—From 7 until 10 o'clock this morning President Wilson and John Bassett Moore, counsellor of the State Department, who is Acting Secretary of State, conferred over the California-Japanese situation.

Two lengthy telegrams had been received during the night from Secretary of State Bryan at Sacramento setting forth in great detail the exact situation as he had found it, and these were considered by the President and Mr. Moore.

The latter is considered the greatest American expert on international law and he advised the President in compiling the answer which was telegraphed to Bryan.

The contents of the telegram has been withheld by the President. It is understood that it answered every objection which was raised by the California legislators in their conference with the telegram also explained just what will be a violation of the existing treaty with Japan in concrete form.

It is not believed any further proposals other than those borne west by Mr. Bryan from the President, will be formulated by the conference, nor that any other course will be suggested by the President than to "stand pat" on what has already been suggested to the California Legislature by Mr. Bryan. It is expected that the latter will be advised to retire gracefully from the field if the western solons refuse to take the counsel offered.

Before President Wilson retired last night, after spending the evening in the executive offices with John Bassett Moore, acting secretary of state, and others, studying the messages from Mr. Bryan at Sacramento, he was aware that California remained firm in the main points of her contention and that the federal government would have to retreat from the position it had taken, baffled and defeated, unless some new and satisfactory compromise proposal was forthcoming from the White House today.

Dispatches other than Mr. Bryan's conveyed to the President the impression that his representative in Sacramento had made, and that California insisted she had the right to enact laws as drastic as those already passed in Arizona and Washington, which definitely exclude aliens "not eligible to citizenship" from owning lands. He was informed by press telegrams and others that Mr. Bryan had not been able to swing the tide away from the determination to enact legislation without delay, although this was the proposal formulated by the President upon which the greatest reliance had been placed.

EXCORIATES ROCKEFELLER.

Chaloner Attacks Oil King And Lauds John L. Sullivan.

John Armstrong Chaloner, of Virginia, has issued a volume of verse, entitled "Scorpio," published by himself, in which he excoriates John D. Rockefeller, criticises society, and lauds John L. Sullivan.

The prologue modestly declares the volume to be "a medium for flaying fools that in concentration, swiftness of action, and completenes of results beats any other known form of satirical flagellation."

He pays his respects to the oil king in these words:

"We shall take pleasure in pointing out how that bald-headed old rogue, Rockefeller, is attempting two impossible things, to wit: First, throw dust in the eyes of the public by prodigious gifts to education, with the veiled hope of educating the rising generation to his nervous way of thinking, and flaring, flaunting, brazen-faced hope of buying the public's forgiveness."

WILL CONSIDER DEMURRERS.

Judge Barley to Take Directors of Trust Co. Answer Under Consideration.

Arguments on the demurrer to the bill of complaint filed by Howard W. Smith, receiver of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, against the twelve directors of the concern were continued in the Corporation Court this morning following an all day session yesterday when the attorneys for the directors presented their reasons why their clients should not be held liable for the $400,000 loss incurred in the failure of the bank.

Judge J. K. M. Norton made the principal argument. He was followed by Gardner L. Boothe and Col. Francis L. Smith, of Alexandria, and C. Vernon Ford, of Fairfax county. The answer of the receiver will be made by Samuel G. Brent, commonwealth's attorney.

At the conclusion of the arguments Judge Barley will take the matter under advisement and will render his decision at a later date.

CRUSADE AGAINST CIVIL SERVICE

Senator Pomerene's Resolution Provides For Probe of System.

A SWEEPING INQUIRY.

Men, It is Alleged, Given Places Without Being Examined—Favoritism Shown Republicans.

Washington, April 29.—Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, is preparing to ask the seiate for a sweeping inquiry into the administration of the civil service law under Republican administration.

Senator Pomerene is chairman of the civil service commission of the Senate, and as such is deeply interested in the workings of the civil service system.

Senator Pomerene has already done some work in a preliminary way on the resolution, although he has not shaped it up finally.

It is the understanding that if the investigation is demanded by Senator Pomerene it will reach to the question of whether partizanship has seriously affected or has dominated in the administration of the evil of the civil service.

Many Democratic leaders are anxious to find out the fact with reference to this matter. It is freeley charged by Democrats at both ends of the capitol that successive Republican administrations have failed to carry out the civil service law in its true spirit. They allege that Republicans have systematically been given preference over Democrats. They allege that the great bulk of employes who are now in the civil service are Republicans, anl that Democratic territory is but little represented.

Furthermore it is charged that large numbers of persons have been covered into the civil service through favoritism without examination. In this connection it is charged that the consular service, which is not under civil service, but it supposedly governed by the merit system, is filled up chiefly with Republicans.

Senator Pomerene plans that an investigation be directed against all of these phases of alleged failure to administer the civil service law in an impartial manner.

SERVICES AT TRINITY.

Rev. Don. S. Colt, of Baltimore, Will Preach at Anniversary Services Tonight.

Continuing the anniversary services now in progress at the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. Don S. Colt, D. D., of Baltimore, will preach. He is a man of broad sympathies, great intellect and wide learning. A man with the deepest of the spiritual natures, with an insight with the realm of things not seen, that seems almost miraculous. Possessing deep feelings himself, he has power to stir to the depth the feelings of others. Those who hear him tonight will not soon forget.

A minister of this city said: "I heard Dr. Colt ten years ago, and never in those ten years has the influence of that address left me, and it has always been an inspiration to me to go over again and again some of the things that this eloquent and Godly man said at that time.

A large congregation attended the services last night. Addresses were made by Rev. J. W. Duffey, pastor of the Washington Street M. E. Church South, Rev. C. R. Strausburg, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church and Rev. W. L. McDowell, of Washington.

FIRE ON HIGHWAY BRIDGE.

Theatre Goers Were Unable to Return Home Last Night. Slight Damage.

Many Alexandrians were compelled to spend the night in Washington last night owing to a fire under the draw of the highway bridge which was decovered at 12:23 this morning. The fire was extinguished by the District's boat, "Firefighter." The 12:30 a. m. train which is used by many theatre goers, did not reach here until 4 o'clock this morning.

The fireboat's crew turned several streams on the flames, which were threatening to destroy the work about the draw. The fire was easily extinguished. It did little damage, save the charring of several timbers, which may have to be replaced.

The fire was caused by a defect in the insulation of the electrical wiring under the draw.

THE FLY CRUSADE.

Health Officer Expects More Contributions in Order to Offer Prizes.

Dr. Gorman, Health Officer, hopes to have all contributions from merchants and others who wish to help eradicate the house fly in Alexandria in his office by tonight, so that he may be in a position to announce the prizes that are to be offered children for fly swatting. At the present time sufficient cash has not been received to make showing in prize officers, $72.00 cash, having been contributed to date, which will not allow an offer of many prizes to cover four months' fly swatting campaign.

Two hundred dollars are needed to enable the Health Department to offer three main cash prizes amounting to $50.00 each month. This will be in addition to any special smaller prizes that may be offered from time to time. Unless more cash contributions come in quickly the health officer will be compelled to announce the prizes and cut down the offer to small sums each month, as $72.00 will not be sufficient to carry out the plans of the campaign.

SEARCHING FOR TAYLOR.

No Trace of Missing Juror From Richmond Found. Spent Night in Railway Station

Chief Goods, of the Alexandria Police Department, was asked today to renew his search for James M. Taylor, one of the jurors, who was summoned here from Richmond to take part in the Hooff trial, and who disappeared following his discharge from the jury and has not been heard from since. As told in yesterday's Gazette, Chief Goods received a telegram yesterday morning from Louis Werner, chief of the Richmond department, telling of Taylor's disappearance and asking the help of the Alexandria police in locating him. No trace of the man was found in Alexandria city yesterday but further search will be made of the suburbs today.

After Taylor was dismissed from the Hooff jury on Wednesday morning he left the court room and was not seen until the following morning when he returned to Alexandria. He is said to have spent Wednesday night in the waiting room of the electric car station in Rosemont and was apparently in a drug or dazed condition according to John Connell, the night watchman. He claimed at that time that he was without funds and would have to walk to Richmond.

According to the Rosemont watchman a man gave his name as Taylor and said he was one of the talesman summoned from Richmond for the Hooff trial, entered the electric railway waiting room at Rosemont, a short distance west of the city, at 2 o'clock Thursday morning. The man had a superficial wound on one cheek, which apparently had just been dressed by a surgeon or druggist.

Declaring that he was without funds and would have to start for Richmond on foot, the man prevailed upon Corbell to allow him to remain in the waiting room until daybreak, in the meantime asking if he was at Chevy Chase. Before leaving the man tore the dressing from the wound on his cheek, washed his face and hands, and started toward the Union pasenger station, still aparently in a dazed condition. Taylor received a state warrant for $10.90 for attendance at court, but he did not cash it in this city.

NEW APARTMENT HOUSE.

Robinson Moncure Starts Work of Remodeling Historic Home Into Modern Flats

Alexandria is to have a new apartment house, work having been commenced yesterday morning by Hon. Robinson Moncure, in remodeling the three-story brick residence, at 412 Prince street, which he recently purchased from F. F. Marbury. The entire building is to be reconstructed according to plans which have been prepared by W. Leon Clark, architect, and when completed it will be one of the most attractive buildings of its kind in Alexandria.

On the first floor there will be three large offices, complete with toilet facilities, each having its private entrance from Prince street. A wide hall will lead direct from Prince street to the stairway in the center of the building, giving access to all of the apartments.

In the rear building there will be two apartments of five rooms and bath each. The second floor of the main building will be divided into one large apartment of seven rooms and bath, the rooms being unusually large. The third floor will be similarly divided. A wing will be added to the west of the main building. The property has a fine yard on the east side which gives an abundance of light. It will be heated by steam and will be lighted by electricity.

The old building is one of the oldest and most historic in Alexandria and was constructed early in the last century.

In ante bellum days it was occupied by the Farmers' Bank of Virginia and during the four years' civil war was the nest of the newly-fledged state of West Virginia. Governor Pierpoint, the first governor, made the building his headquarters.

After the close of hostilities it was used by the Farmers' and Mechanics' Savings Bank, an institution which closed its doors in 1877. Later the office of the Alexandria Water Company was removed from Prince street, opposite the old Gazette office, to this building.

Women's Summer Footwear

Pumps—Any ocasion is now the occasion for pumps, at home or on the street; morning or evening. The smart bow or buckle trimmed effects are charming in their simplicity and adaptability to any dainty summer costume. The Colonial pumps are shown in numerous variations of style, and are being widely accepted by all women. For the present, patent and dull-finished leathers are preferred, and as the season advances tan leathers and white buckskin will predominate; even now they are being called for with increasing frequency.

Oxfords—In spite of the popularity of the pump, the Oxford is enjoying greater favor than previously. And among Oxfords one of the very smartest things is the Button Oxford. Its trim severity of curve is just right to set off a tailored costume properly. The Oxford tie will have an extensive following for heavier usage—outing, walking and during inclement weather. Another new lace Oxford is made on an English last, and while bordering on the extreme, it points the way toward one tendency this season—lower heels and longer vamps. In leathers one has a free reign of selection—patent kid skin and colt skin, black and tan, Russia calfskin, black and colored kidskin and canvas.

DEATH OF REV. DR. CACKLEY.

Member of Baltimore Conference, Southern Methodist Church.

Roanoke, Va., April 29.—Rev. Dr. A. M. Cackley, pastor of St. James' Methodist Episcopal Church South, one of the best known ministers in the Baltimore Conference, died yesterday at his residence after an illness of several weeks.

Dr. Cackley became ill while attending the sessions of the conference in Staunton. Returning to Roanoke after his reappointment to St. James', Dr. Cackley grew weaker daily from a complication of stomach disorders.

He was born in Greenbrier county, West Virginia, 64 years ago, and during 38 years' membership in the Baltimore Conference has filled some of the most important appointments. He was a member of the Lexington Lodge of Masons.

DR. BRIGGS SERIOUSLY ILL.

Religious Scholar, Convicted of Heresy, Suddenly Stricken.

New York, April 29.—Rev. Charles August Briggs, lecturer and writer on theological subjects, yesterday became seriously ill from a disease of the heart in his apartments at the Union Theological Seminary. Three physicians, called in consultation announced that his condition is grave.

In 1891, Dr. Briggs delivered an address on "The Authority of the Holy Scriptures." It aroused such adverse criticism that charges of heresy followed. He was acquitted by the Presbytery of New York, and again by the General Assembly at Portland, Ore. The committee of prosecution, however, appealed to the General Assembly at Washington, D. C., which reversed the former decision and ordered that Dr. Briggs be suspended. Dr. Briggs was accused of teaching that reason and the church are alike fountains of divine authority; that the original text of the Scriptures may have contained errors; that Moses did not write the Pentateuch, and that Isaiah wrote but half of the book bearing his name.

Dr. Briggs is the author of many books dealing with religious subjects and for many years has been a lecturer and teacher at the Union Theological Seminary. He is 72 years old.

SECOND OPERATION.

Wife of Governor General of Canada in Grave Condition.

London, April 29.—A second abdominal operation was performed today on the Duchess of Connaught, and her condition occasioned the gravest alarm to the royal family.

The duchess, who is the wife of the governor-general of Canada, and the aunt of King George, suffered from chronic peritonitis almost all the time she was in Canada, and the Duke brought her to England in the hope of restoring her health.

About three weeks ag an operation was deemed necessary, and for a while her progress was satisfactory. Recently, however, she suffered a relapse, and the physicians found it necessary to operate again.

The physicians today issued a bulletin saying that the second operation was a severe one, but that her grace was as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Fire in Ship's Magazine.

Charlestown, Mass., April 29—Fire in the magazines of the supply ship Celtic, at the navy yard here today threatened the lives of the 100 members of the crew who fought the flames.

The fire was extinguished after an hour's work at the pumps.

YOUNG WIFE SHOOTS HERSELF.

Fear of An Operation Supposed Motive of Suicide.

Staunton, Va., April 29.—While T. Hughart Irvine, a rural mail carrier, was going his round yesterday morning, his young wfe lay at home dead, having shot herself through the breast with a revolver. He knew nothing of the tragedy until he reached Staunton on his return, shortly after noon.

Mrs. Irvine had been ailing for some time and arrangements has been made to have her brought to a hospital here yesterday afternoon from their home, four miles from the city. Fear of the operation is supposed to have led her to commit suicde, for which the prepared by sending her children to the home of a sister-in-law nearby.

The sister-n-law becoming uneasy, went to investigate and found Mrs. Irvine dead.

The deceased was formerly Miss Mary Nicholas, daughter of Phillip Nicholas, of Arvonia, Buckingham county. She leaves three young children.

Kills Alleged Squealer.

New York, April 29.—Gunmen again got into action in the heart of the city today when Jerry Maide, who was said to have given District Attorney Whitman information, was shot five times through the heart. The killing took place on 41st street just off Brodway. Two men were caught running away from the scene, but protested their innocence. Five arrests were made. A revolver was found in the gutter.

Maide was said to have been a member of the "Paul Kelly' gang and to have betrayed some of its secrets and members. The police believe he was shot in revenge.

Fire at Lynchburg.

Lynchburg, Va., April 29.—Fire of apparently incendiary origin damaged the Virgnian office building and White's department store, adjoining to the extent of $70,000,000 early yesterday morning. The loss is covered by insurance. The fire had gained access to four floors of the Virginian building, through the elevator shaft, and was burning briskly when the firemen arrived. The flames were confined contiguously to the elevator shaft, but the two buildings were flooded with water, this constituting the damage done to the White store, where the damage is estimated at $35,000.

JAPANESE ISSUE IN THE HOUSE.

As might have been expected, the United States is rapidly losing patience with the aggressiveness of Japan, and while every means has been resorted to in order to keep up good feeling between this country and the Mikado, the time has come when the United States must stand upon her dignity and let the little brown man know that this nation is not to be coerced by representatives of the Mongolian race. We prefer amicable relations with every nation but are not inclined to maintain the same by truckling to any. The remarks of Mr. Sisson in the House of Representatives yesterday are generally approved by all who have followed the vexed Japanese issue.

"Before I would surrender one foot of land in California to Japan, I would fight," declared Representative Sisson, of Mississippi, in the House yesterday.

"I am with the people of California,' 'said Sisson, "and I would spend the last dollar in the treasury to protect their rights."

Under license of general tariff debate Representative Sisson took the opportunity to "warn" the President and the Secretary of State that California must not be coerced into surrendering any of the rights she possesses as a State. He declared that the Federal government is in duty bound to protect California in exercising all of its rights.

Representative Sisson asserted that Japan had no just cause of complaint against California or the United States. He was greeted with aplause when he said:

"If Japan threatens us now in this land matter what will she do later on if thousands of her subjects own land in our country?" he asked. "If the United States yields to the demands of Japan, China would have the right to make the same demands, and we would be humiliated."

Mr. Sisson, in conclusion, declared that he had traced all the treaties between the United States and Japan and in none of them did either power guarantee the right of land ownership to the subjects of the other.

TROUBLE IN THE CHINESE REPUBLIC.

The infant Chinese Republic, while still in its swaddling clothes, is causing its nurses daily and nightly vigils, and seemingly refuses to yield to soothing syrups and gentle lullabies. There are internal qualms which cause it to toss uneasily. Those at the head of the newly-formed republic are doubtless doing all they can to bring about different conditions, but as soon as they succeed in eliminating one complaint another breaks out.

The rupture is widening between the Chinese cabinet and the senate regarding the loan of $125,000,000 to be issued by Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia and Japan. The ministers have refused to appear before the legislators to explain the signature of the contract for the loan, pleading that they were ill.

The House of Representatives has not yet succeeded in choosing a chairman.

Several provincial assemblies and governors, whose support has been withheld already from the Pekin government, especially the southern provinces have become so hostile that they are likely to form a separate union until an acceptable president of the republic has been elected.

VIOLATION OF SUNDAY LAW.

Judge and Newspaper Staff are Arrested—Twenty-Fve Warants Served.

Portsmouth, O., April 29. — The hearings of former Judge A. Z. Blair, the entire force of a local newspaper, and other Portsmouth citizens, who were arrested on charges of violating the Sunday common labor laws, will be held next Wednesday in Justice J. W. Byron's court. Twenty-five warrants were served.

An attorney, representing several defendants, last night filed motion asking for the dismissal of charges, on the ground that the owners of the motion-picture theatres, who filed the charges did so in retaliation for their arrest, April 20, for opening their places of business on Sunday.

Organizer in Clash With Federation.

Baltimore, Md., April 29.—George H. Barry, claiming to be an I. W. W. organizer, is in conflict with the Baltimore Federation of Labor, over pending strikes of machinists and clothing cutters and trimmers. A lockout is expected on May 1 in these trades. The clothing strike will affect about twenty thousand persons, who will be unable to work with the cutters idle.

This is the first appearance of the I. W. W. in Baltimore. J. H. Ferguson, president of the local federation, is fighting Barry hard. Both machinists and clothing cutters demand an eight-hour day. Barry says he is to organize unskilled labor and has no part in the main trobule.

Frenchman's Prediction.

Paris, April 29.—"In less than ten years the Atlantic ocean will be spanned by an aeroplane, and more than that, the crossing will be accomplished in less than a day."

Such was the astounding prediction made by Count de Lambert, the French nobleman, who was Wilbur Wright's first pupil and third passenger ever taken up in a heavier-than-air machine.

"I believe," said Count de Lambert, "that within ten years the sea will be traversed from the British isle to the United States or vice versa, by a hydroaeroplane, and between sunrise and sunset at that. There are two difficulties which must be overcome. One is that one must be able to keep one's course, the other is to keep from being wrecked by the waves in case a landing in the water is necessary. Of course, one would streer by compass but one would drift without being conscious of it if the wind came from a contrary direction.

HUNGER STRIKE OPENS JAIL.

Mother Reunited With Children and Charge Dropped.

York, Pa., April 29—Having pledged her husband upon his death bed she would protect her little girls with her last breath, Mrs. Martha Ella Elie, of Stewartstown, went upon a hunger strike in the York county jail where she was imprisoned upon a larceny charge, and her two daughters, Emma and Mary, 6 and 10 years, were taken from her. Since last Friday morning the woman hes refused food and yesterday, when her condition was regarded as alarming, her release was secured through the intervention of the York Society to Protect Children.

After an affecting reunion with her children at the Christian Home, and a hearty meal there, the woman was sent to her home. Friends have taken up the woman's case, the charge against her having grown out of the alleged theft of some clothing which she claims was given her at a house where she was employed.

Mrs. Elie had taken her children to jail with her, but because of their tender ages the Childen's Society removed them to its own detention home. The woman thereupon became disconsolate and refused even the choicest delicacies prepared by Mrs. W. C. Licking, the sheriff's wife.

SMILES.

By The Second Ward Bard.

IN DAYS OF OLD.

In days of old, when knights were bold, and men went forth each day
To succor maidens in distress and fiery dragons slay,
They rode their prancing steeds and fought in good King Arthur's lists,
And mauled each other with their lances, 'stead of with their fists.

The women folks stood by and cheered their heroes in the fray,
And for the lives of stricken ones quite humbly they would pray,
But times have changed, and men no longer for adventure seek,
They find enough by staying home to make them truly meek.

The maidens now are going out to find adventures bold,
They love to go to bargain sales and fight the crowd, I'm told,
And march in parades for suffrage and in women's clubs to flock,
While mere man puts the kids to bed darns hose and winds the clock.

This cold snap makes it awfully disagreeable for the fellow who bought a pair of low shoes on Saturday.

The way of the transgressor is hard, but it hasn't got anything on the way of the peace-maker.

There's something I don't understand
The reason I haven't heard yet,
Why folks get a cold in their head
As soon as their feet get wet.

FIRST CAR OF STRAWBERRIES.

Crop Retarded by Dry Weather, But Not Injured.

Norfolk, Va., April 29.—W. B. Shafer Inc., produce shipper, loaded the first refrigerator car of strawberries to leave Norfolk this season on Saturday. The shipment was consigned to Hannaford Brothers, Portland, Me.

Frost and other adverse weather conditions have set the strawberry crop in Norfolk and Princess Anne counties, as well as that of the Peninsula and Eastern Shore sections, back considerably. Experts estimate that the crop has been reduced anywhere from 25 to 50 per cent of what was expected before the frosts that occurred a couple of weeks ago.

MAY SECURE JUDGESHIP.

Senate Passes Chilton Bill Creating Additional Judge for Circuit.

Washington, April 29.—The Senate has passed the bill introduced by Senator Chilton, of West Virginia, creating an additional judgeship in the Fourth Circuit, consisting of Virginia, West Virginia and North and South Carolina and Maryland.

When it was taken up about ten days ago its passage was interrupted by Senator Bristow, of Kansas, who interposed a point of order, stating that owing to the abandonment of Commerce Court July 1, one of these judges could be assigned to the Fourth circuit.

A bill similar to that of Senator Chilton's will possibly be introduced in the house within the next few days but nothing can be done with it until the house committees are appointed.

Woman Under Arrest.

Winchester, Va., April 29.—Minnie Evans, the young wman associated with Clyde J. Carpenter, the insurance agent who was waylaid and shot to death on Main street here a few nights ago, was taken into custody and locked in jail yesterday. While no direct charge has been lodged against the woman it is thought she knows more abut the crime than she has told the coroner's jury and the examining judges.

She had testified at the inquest that Carpenter had just left her home when a band of masked men fired on him. She named several of them, but later retracted the statement. It is thought the murderers will be in custody within a few whours.

Leaped From Train.

Altoona, Pa., April 29. — Seized with what railroad men call "train insanity," a mental condition due to traveling long distances alone with loss of sleep and irregular meals, which makes persons thus afflicted want to commit suicide John Monrode, of San Francisco, leaped from the window of the Atlantic express as the fast eastbound Pennsy train was passing Lilly on the mountain west of here, today, but lost his right arm instead of succeeding in killing himself.

A New Kind of Roofing

Asphalt Gravel That Will Last Ten Years—Can Be Used Anywhere.

Cumberland, Md.—Among the many improvements at the Y. M. C. A. Building is the asphalt gravel roof (Security brand) that was put on under the direction of Mr. Adam May.

A fairy tale is told about this roofing by Mr. A. M. Strickland, of Elkton, Md. About ten years ago he built at the Elkton foundry and covered the roof with Security Asphalt Gravel Roofing and four years afterward the building and contents were consumed by fire. Nothing was left but the walls and roofing.

Being of an economical turn of mind he ordered the carpenters to cut down the roofing in strips, losing only the laps.

He used these strips of roofing on the new foundry buliding and it is in good condition today after ten years of active service.

It would be difficult to believe such a tale, because tin, iron and slate or any other composition roofing would have gone to smash or curled up and blown away in such a conflagration.

There is reason to believe this is true, because it stood the test in a similar fire in the B. & O. hay shed at Mt. Clare station, Baltimore ,some years ago.

This roofing can be purchased of

PROTESTANT PURGATORY.

Epicopal Clergyman Defends Theory of Intermediate State.

Philadelphia, Apri 29.—Defense of the theory that provides between heaven and hell an intermediate state for the purging of sin-stained souls was made by Rev. H. Page Dyer in a sermon in the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension yesterday. The utter injustice of a divine procedure that would provide for the repentant evil soul as quick an entrance into the land of the blessed as is accorded the spirt of the pure and godly formed the basis of Mr. Dyer' argument.

"Almost everybody," he said, "believes there is a heaven, but there is a diversity of thought as to when the saved shall reach there. Of course, it is evident that the bodies of all the saved will be reunited to their souls at the time of the resurrection, for not until then will they have arisen from their graves. But what about the entrance of the souls into heaven? The Protestant belief is that every soul that does not go to hell goes to heaven at the moment of death. One difficulty about this is that it takes no account of the quality or character of a man's mode of life. A man whose life has been so low and bestial that he barely escapes damnation, according to this theory, goes as surely and quickly to heaven as aman who has lived a careful, holy and beautiful life.

"The ancient belief of God's church is one of holy common sense. Few souls are so pure that they are fit for heaven, where nothing that is defile may enter. And yet there are many millions of people who are too good to go to hell. This vast body of immortal beings will at death go either to heaven or hell but to an intermediate state a sort of vestibule to heaven, an ante chamber, where their stains will be removed, and where a divine process of purgation is mercifully provided by Almighty God."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The home of James T. Bacon, a miner, and former member of the Colorado legislature, at Cripple Creek, Colo., was blown up with dynamite yesterday, killing Mrs. Bacon and her 5-year-old daughter. Bacon was rendered unconscious. Who exploded the dynamite is not known.

William D. Haywood, organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World was arrested at Passiac, N. J., yesterday on his way from New York to Pasiac, N. J.,to surender himself under an indictment charging him with inciting to riots among the silk mill strikers. Ten thousand strikers had gathered at the Erie Railroad station to meet Haywood and witness his arrest and escort him to jail. Sheriff Radcliffe went to Passiac and took Haywood off the train there. He was broufght from Passaic by the sheriff in an automobile, and was released on bail soon after he arrived When the leader was taken from the train at Passaic he was quickly surrounded by a crowd, which shouted "Duck him in the river!" The demonstration became so threatening that the sheriff called on several police men to help him escort the prisoner to the automobile.

Wilder than the beasts which ranged the snowbound wastes around them, two men sat penned by the drifts in a prospector's shack, 75 miles north of Mile Fifty Three, British Columbia, half frozen and wholly starving. They had eaten nothing but dead animal skins for a month. As they waited and watched for death to stalk in at the door the only bit of flesh visible to either was the shriveled body of his companion, and each resolved to get that at any price. On the eighth day, Henri LeClaire, a French trapper, caught his companion, "Len" Lemieux, a Hudson Bay Company guide, unaware, plunged a knife into his body and ate. This dread story of the wintry prairie land was scratched with a hunting knife by Le Claire on the door of the cabin before he flung it open to flee from the company if his slain companion's body and his own mad, remorseful raving.

Fragments of a bomb hurled by a native adherent of the pretenders to the Annamite throne burst among a large group of French officers, government officials, and foreign residents seated on the terrace of the principal cafe, Hanoi, French Indo-China Sunday night, killing Captain Marie Jean Leon Mongrand of the Ninth Colonial Infantry, and Captain Frederick Chapuis, of the Annamite rifles. Fragments of the infernal machine wounded eight other persons. The promenades in the vicinity were crowded at the time, and all trace of the bomb-thrower was lost.

SENATORS EMBARRASSED.

Chief Justice Looks Around the Room for Junior Senator.

Washington, April 29.—Senator Claude Swanson of Virginia was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court yesterday, on motion of his colleague, Senator Thomas S. Martin, chairman of the appropriaton committee. Senator Martin arrived in the court too late to move the admission of his colleague while the court was receiving motions for admission to the bar.

After the Chief Justice had called for other motions and several had been submitted by members of the bar, Senator Martin rose and moved the admission of his colleague.

Senator Swanson had not been properly "coached" for the ceremony, and failed to rise when his colleague moved his admission. Senator Martin was telling the Chief Justice that Mr. Swanson was a Senator from the State of Virginia, that he had practiced law three years before the highest court in that commonwealth, and was otherwise qualified, when the Chief Justice suddenly interrupted him:

"Where is the gentleman?"

Senator Swanson blushed and rose, and was directed to proceed to the clerk's desk and take the oath. Both Senator Martin and he were visibly embarrassed.

SENSATIONAL SPEECH.

Furman University Head Assails Catholics Before Sociologists.

Atlanta, Ga., April 29.—Tonight's general session of the Southern Sociological congress came to an unexpected end when Dr. A. J. McKelway, of Washington, D. C., the presiding officer, interrupted the remarks of Dr. E. M. Poteat, president of Furman University, Greenville, S. C.

Dr. Poteat, in delivering an address on "national stewardship," launched into a hostile criticism of Catholics and Jews. As he was saying, "I don't see where a red cap adds any brains—" Dr. McKelway arose and informed the speaker that the congress was nondenominational.

In the confusion that followed Dr. Poteat retired from the building, and the session ended.

Gov. Wm. H. Mann, of Virginia, was last night unanimously chosen president of the Congress. Other officers elected as follows:

John E. White, Atlanta, first vice-president ;Mrs. J. A. Baker, Houston, Tex., second vice-president. J. E. McCulloch, general secretary, and M. E. Holderness, general treasurer, both of Nashville, Tenn., were re-elected.

Gov. Mann., the new president of the Congress, was prevented from attending on account of a serious operation.

MISS BORDEN WITH MOTHER.

Will Return to Los Angeles With Her Daughter.

New York, April 29.—Mrs. Helen Valk Borden arrived in this city yesterday from her home in Los Angeles, and met her daughter, Ramona, who last Wednesday ran away from the Adams Sanitarium in Pompton, N. J., with Mrs. William I. White, wife of the chewing gum manufacturer, and another woman.

Last night mother and daughter were together in the Hotel Belmont. In a few days Mrs. Borden will return to Los Angeles with Miss Borden. Gail Borden, father of the girl, has voluntarily relinquished possession, and will place no obstacle in the way of his wife's plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Borden are not on speaking terms, but by negotiations carried on between Mrs. Bordenand the brother and sister of the husband it was agreed that the guardianship in the future should be joint. Until the stir caused by the flight of the girl has subsided, however, she will remain with her mother.

Speakers of prominence in religious work have been engaged to address the three evening sessions.

To The Citizens of Alexandria and R. F. D.'s

As certain candidates have seriously stated that I am out of the race for Postmaster of the city. I desire to correct the error, and to state that while I do not care to annoy my friends or the public by begging signatures to useless petitions, that after 40 years' service to Alexandria and the Democratic party, I am, at least, a receptive candidate for the position, other active candidates to the contrary notwithstanding.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS.

People Rush in Terror to Streets Fearing Collapse of Houses.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., April 29.—The heaviest earthquake ever experienced here was felt at 7:30 yesterday morning. It lasted fully half a minute and was followed by a loud rumbling sound.

Buildings shook so badly that occupants ran into the streets in fear that they would collapse.

The shock was distictly felt in many nearby towns.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 29.—Earthquake shocks were felt in several villages and towns in northern New York at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening, causing considerable alarm. At Canton, St. Laurence county, the shock continued for a minute. Houses were jarred and dishes rattled on the shelves, but no damage was done.

Montreal, April 29.—An earthquake shock was experienced here shortly after 7:30 o'clock this evening, but no damage is reported from any section, though the inmates of a hospital in the west end of the city, where the movement was most pronounced, were considerably excited. The shock was particularly violent in the northwestern part of the city and Westmount, where houses swayed and furniture rattled for several seconds, though little damage was done.

Ottawa, Ont., April 29.—A well-defined earthquake of 15 seconds' duration was felt here last night. So far as known no damage resulted. The tremors were felt in all sections of the city.

Condition in Mexico.

Ex-rebel troops, under General Jone Inez Salazer, mutined yesterday at Casas Grandes, refusing to proceed in the campaign against the constitutionalists of Chihuahua state.

Salazar, with his staff of officers, is reported to be held prisoner by his own men. The troops, whose leader had accepted the Huerta national government, were ordered to proceed to Chihuahua to enter the active campaign against the insurgents, threatening the state capital from the south. The order, when given by Salazar, met with refusal by a majority of the men, private advices relate.

A rapidly growing situation in Mexico City, fraught with friction between the Huerta and Diaz factions of the provisional government, is reported in confidential advices, and these reports are augmented by agents of the Carranza constitutionalists arriving in Washington.

Reports of the situation in Mexico City confirm earlier advices of the tensity of the relations of Diaz to Huerta. Between the two officials practically all government forces in the federal district have been divided into two armed camps. Huerta has added to the infantry at the National Palace and Diaz has encamped much of the artillery on his estate, Hacienda del Cristo, about 30 miles away. Mondragon, minister of war, is in practical possession of the citadel where other artillery are quartered.

TARIFF CONFERENCE.

President to Meet Southern and Western Senators.

Washington, April 29.—The fate of the Wilson-Underwood tariff bill may have a hinge in a conference arranged today by President Wilson. On Thursday morning, commencing at 10:30 o'clock and continuing for three hours, the President will meet in his office all of the southern and western Senators who oppose the wool and sugar provisions of the bill as at present drafted.

At that time all of the objections which have been raised will be presented to the President by the Senators who believe that the industries in their States are threatened.

The conference was arranged by Senator Newlands of Nevada, and among the Senators expected to be present are those from Louisiana, Nevada, Colorado and Oregon.

The reading of the Unwerwood tariff bill for amendment began in the House at 11 o'clock today, and within a week the measure probably will be on its way to the senate.

General debate on the tariff ended at a night session last night. It was nearly midnight when Mr. Mann hurled the final republican brickbat at the Democratic bill. The minority leader demanded a tariff commission to make a report upon the "scientific" revision of the tariff.
